PUBLIC NOTICES

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 28th April, 1961

SUBJECT:—Extension of validity period—Consignments sunk on the S.S. "Indian Navigator"—Import of replacement goods—

No. 42-ITC(PN)/61.—Attention of the Trade is invited to the Ministry of Commerce & Industry Public Notice No. 18-ITC(PN)/61 dated the 20th February, 1961.

2. The matter has been examined further and it has been decided that the validity period of all such affected import licences to have automatically extended for a period of six months from 20th February, 1961 and not for three months as originally announced in the aforesaid Public Notice.

SUBJECT:—Import policy for Precision and Measuring tools (S. No. 21(1)|II)—April-September, 1961 Licensing period.

No. 43-ITC(PN)/61.—Attention of importers is invited to remark 1(a) against S. No. 21(1)|II in Section II of the current Red Book according to which licences granted for 'Precision and Measuring Tools' will not be valid for the import of the items specified thereunder.

2. It has been decided that licences granted for 'Precision and Measuring Tools' will not also be valid for the import of Magnetic Bases complete with or without Dial Indicator. The following additional entry may, therefore, be deemed to have been made under remark 1(a) against S. No. 21(1)|II in Section II of the current Red Book:—

"(xiii) Magnetic bases complete with or without Dial Indicator".

3. Import of 'Magnetic bases complete with or without Dial Indicator' will not also be allowed against licences for Machine Tools falling under Part VI of the I.T.C. Schedule.

K. T. SATARAWALA,

Chief Controller of Imports and Exports.
